Breakfast Seminar to Focus on India

Information Session a Primer for Planned Mission to India in 2009

TORONTO – October 30, 2008 – In advance of a planned mission to India in 2009, the Italian Chamber of Commerce of Toronto will be holding an information session on India, with special focus on business opportunities in the textile and fashion, hi-tech, research and development and construction and real estate sectors.

“Interest on the part of our members is what prompted us to organize this information session in the first place.” notes ICCT Executive Director Corrado Paina, adding: “India holds tremendous potential for exporters and investors from key sectors of Ontario’s economy. Tapping into the extensive local knowledge of fellow Italian Chamber Network member, the Italian Chamber of Commerce of Mumbai, will allow us to deliver timely expert information and export support for our trade mission in 2009.”

Guest speaker for the breakfast seminar is Mr. Kam Rathee, Director of the Canada-India Business Council and Special Adviser-India for Blakes Cassels & Graydon, LLP.

An informative video presentation on doing business in India, prepared by the Italian Chamber of Commerce of Mumbai will also be screened during the event.
