

SCOTIABANK ICCO ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERSHIP AWARD
Luigi Ferrara
Dean of the Centre for Arts, Design & Information Technology, George Brown College

Luigi Ferrara is an architect, designer, educator and storyteller. He is the Dean of the Centre for Arts, Design & Information Technology at George Brown College in Toronto, Canada and Director of the internationally-acclaimed Institute without Boundaries (IwB). He has served as President and Senator of Icsid and lectures around the world on topics as diverse as design and sustainability, design management, urban planning, information technology, digital media, telecommunications and the network society.